

CARL W. LEJUEZ, Ph.D.

Professor, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
The University of Kansas

LEADERSHIP

Dr. Carl Lejuez was the founder and director of the Center for Addictions, Personality and Emotion Research at Maryland before joining KU.

He has applied his treatment strategies in low-income communities in Washington, D.C., and around the world, including Iraqi Kurdistan, China and several countries in South America. He is a prolific author across multiple fields, including psychology, psychiatry and public health. Other researchers have cited his work more than 8,000 times in the past five years.

Dr. Carl Lejuez joined KU in 2016 as the Dean of CLAS and as a psychology department faculty member