Before Applying

- Please prepare to provide the following items for your application:
 - Current Curriculum Vitae (C.V.) or Resume
 - Statement of Purpose
 - Three (3) Recommenders and their email addresses
 - List of psychology courses taken and grades received
 - Copies of official transcripts from all institutions attended
 - Potential Advisor choice in Social Psychology
 - English Proficiency Scores (Non-Native English Speakers)
 - Optional: GRE Scores

Applying to the Program

- Applications are accepted generally from September-December 1st for the following Fall Semester admission.

Applicants Without Undergraduate Psychology Degrees:

- Our program is open to accepting well-qualified students whose undergraduate degrees are not in psychology. For such an individual to qualify for admission, however, he or she should have a minimum of 15 hours of undergraduate credits in psychology courses. Although a variety of psychology courses would be considered acceptable, the student's transcript ideally would include courses in such topics as psychological statistics, research methods and design, abnormal psychology, personality, brain & behavior, social psychology and cognitive psychology. An overall undergraduate grade point average of 3.00 (based on a 4-point grading system) is also preferred for admission to full graduate standing.

Accessing the Application

1. Navigate to the KU Graduate Admissions webpage and click "Apply"
2. Select your status of application: Returning user (Click Log in) or First-Time user (Click Create an account). If you have not submitted an application to KU before Spring 2022, you will need to create an account.
